

Brooklyn School Est. 1883

Take up the challenge - Mauria te taki

Ideas for Audio Reading at home

These sites are generally free to access and have hundreds of books to enjoy. A large majority of them are available as Audio books.

Libby – (Free) Libby is an app released by OverDrive that allows access to ebooks and audio books from the local library. Libby is compatible with Android and iOS device. Download from app store and put in your library card number.

Story Box Library Streaming storytimes — preschool & primary school age stories read aloud on video by amazing authors & storytellers. This is available on Wellington Public Library website under e-library. Can be listened to on computer, iPad or phone. K-Year 5

Kids' eReading Room Overdrive's Kids' eReading Room — the main website filtered just for kids' material. This is available on Wellington Public Library website under e-library. Can be listened to on computer, iPad or phone.

Year 3 upwards.

Epic – Free for teachers to create a 'class' and student can access books during school hours. Great selection of books including National Geographic. Some books can be read as audio books. Teacher free access can be shared with parents.

Storytime

Children's Treasure Chest

These two sites from Radio NZ have a wide range of children's audio books that can be accessed. They include quality chapter books and a wide range of NZ authors.

phone or tablet.

For as long as schools are closed, Audible for kids is free. Kids everywhere can instantly stream an incredible collection of stories, including titles across six different languages, that will help them continue dreaming, learning, and just being kids. All stories are free to stream on your desktop, laptop,